A St. Louis man has written a book entitled "A Year In Hell." Of course, the author is no politician, for every year in the business is a hot time for the politician.

A Republican paper says "The Democratic party is dead." 'Taint so. There are still left enough kicks in the Democratic party to keep the Republicans busy sitting up with the corpse.

President Roosevelt advises men to "work like beavers." Of course he doesn't mean for 'em to work like George Beavers who was a prominent worker in the Postoffice Department scandal at Washington.

Texas is playing a real practical joke on Governor Hoch, of Kansas. Hoch refused to grant a requisition for a bad Texas negro, and the Texans are advising the bad negroes that Kansas is a good place to go to when they want to escape punishment. Good idea.

A dispatch from Cleveland, O., says a lot of college girls while engaged in playing poker late one night "were rudely interrupted by the janitrix." Guess the girls played the game all right, for we've seen many a one of them with a hand worth holding.

The Carolina Mascot has been enlarged and comes to us under the name of the Iredell County Mascot. The paper is enlarged and will be as good a paper as it has been all the time. Messrs. Brumley & Harris continue at the helm and The Star wishes them well.

Heavy tides sloshed up over Wrightsville Beach the other day President Roosevelt was passing up the coast in the cruiser West Virginia and old Neptune was evidently doing something strenuous to let the head of the great nation know that he was near the hefty shores of the Old North State.

TRIAL OF MUTINEERS

THEY PLEADED NOT GUILTY

Special Venire of Fifty Ordered and Hearing Set for Saturday Morning—Indictment Against Henry Scott Will Come Later.

In the Federal Court yesterday the grand jury returned true bills against Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, two of the three negro sailors of the schooner Berwind aboard which the horrible murder of Capt. E. R. Rumill and four members of his crew occurred off the North Carolina coast last month. A little later the prisoners were brought in, heavily ironed, by Marshal Dockery and several deputies and were formally arraigned. Through their attorney, George L. Peschau, Esq., they pleaded not guilty. A special venire of fifty was ordered, in addition to the regular panel of 24 jurors, and the trial was set for Saturday morning.

The ceremonies of the arraignment were very solemn as provided by statute. The prisoners were unshackled and given a seat by their counsel, facing the court. The Marshal proclaimed silence and when the proper entries had been made on the clerk's docket, Col. Harry Skinner, the district attorney, read with dramatic effect, the bill of indictment, the prisoners standing. The fingers of Sawyer twitched with nervousness and both betrayed a slight weakness of the knees, but otherwise they did not appear in the least disconcerted.

Robert Scott, generally regarded as the arch conspirator of the three and against whom the other two have turned State's evidence, had been brought into court with the others, but the charge against him is in a separate bill of indictment and the cases of the other two have been taken up first. During the ceremonies of arraignment, he sat over in the prisoner's dock, to the left of the judge, displaying much interest and eagerness in the proceedings. His manner, however, remains stoical and his interest seemed more that of a spectator than one very soon to pass through the same trying ordeal.

When Col. Skinner had completed reading the bill of indictment and the prisoners had answered nervously, but clearly and in unison "Not guilty," they were bidden to take their seats. Then their counsel, George L. Peschau, Esq., asked for a special venire of 100 from which to select a jury for the trial of the prisoners. Mr. Peschau said that owing to newspaper accounts, of the mutiny, it would be very difficult to get men who had not formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants and that he took it that the jury should go into the box entirely unbiased. With a venire smaller than that he thought it would be impossible to get a proper jury.

Col. Skinner said that in cases of the kind at bar he had never known more than 50 to be chosen as a venire. With the 24 regular jurors, there would be 74 in all and if that number was exhausted more could be summoned from bystanders in the court room. The great trouble about a venire of 100, he said, would be getting them from the several counties in the district in spite of the fact that the court had ruled that the Marshal might summon them by telegraph.

Judge Purnell ruled with the District Attorney that 50 would be sufficient and that number was drawn from the box yesterday afternoon by Prof. Washington Catlett, the jury commissioner, returnable for the trial Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Peschau, counsel for the prisoners, said that in his opinion not more than a day at the outside would be required to try the cases.

Marshal Dockery and Deputy Marshal Jno. C. Dockery were busy last night reaching as many of the veniremen as possible by mail and telegraph and they will come to the city in time for the trial.

Just after the other prisoners had been arraigned yesterday, the negro Scott was taken by the Marshal into the room of the District Attorney where Col. Skinner had a brief conference with him. Adams and Sawyer will testify against Scott and Scott against Adams and Sawyer.

The court room was packed yesterday during the arraignment. As the prisoners were brought down Princess street from the jail, under heavy guard, the word was passed along, "There goes the mutineers," and a large crowd immediately followed in the wake of the officers to see the defendants and to witness the arraignment. Every seat in the court room was taken while many stood up. It is understood that a bill against Scott may not be returned until later in the term, but his presence in the court room Saturday will be necessary as he will be introduced by the government to testify against Adams and Sawyer. Scott thus far has no attorney to defend him.

SEVERAL TO ATLANTA PRISON

Cases Disposed of in Federal Court Yesterday—True and Not True Bills By Grand Jury.

Although there were several sentences to terms of imprisonment in the Federal prison at Atlanta, the cases disposed of in the United States Court yesterday were mainly without interest. Both morning and afternoon sessions were held and the attendance continued very large. A recess was taken from 1:45 to 3:15 and again at 5:45 P. M. until 9 o'clock this morning. Judge Purnell is insisting upon the attendance of witnesses and defendants in the court room and several were called out and fined during the sessions yesterday.

The case of chief interest yesterday was that of Mr. Pink Reaves, a very well-to-do man of Columbus county, charged with retailing. Mr. Reaves was represented by ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, of this city, and the burden of the testimony for the defence was that the violation, if any, was merely a technical one. The jury retired with the case before noon but could not reach an agrement and a mistrial was ordered during the afternoon. The defendant then submitted to a technical violation and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in jail. The judgment as to imprisonment was later suspended upon payment of fine and costs which amounted to about $190. Other cases disposed of were as follows:

E. W. Watts, Cumberland; retailing; 15 months in Atlanta prison, $300 fine and costs; verdict by jury.

Wm. Stone, Robeson, reatiling; pleaded guilty; judgment suspended on account of defendant's being a cripple, in bad health and having already served a term of 12 months from the State courts.

Joseph Ross, Robeson; retailing; discharged, having been on county roads eight months and having been shot.

Burwell Hawes, Columbus; retailing and distilling; two years in Atlanta prison and $200 fine and costs; cases consolidated.

James Murchison, Cumberland; retailing, and distilling; six months, $100 fine and costs.

Pink Simmons, Columbus, retailing; 30 days in jail; $100 fine and costs.

H. O. Spivey, Columbus; retailing and distilling; three months in jail, $100 fine and costs.

True bills were returned by the grand jury as follows: E. W. Watts, Columbus, retailing; E. W. Watts, Columbus, intimidating witness; Jno. W. Harris, Cumberland, retailing and distilling; Jule Edwards, Duplin, retailing; Ned Thigpen, Duplin; retailing; Colin Seals, Robeson; retailing and distilling; James Murchison, Cumberland; retailing and distilling; Thos. Locklear, Robeson, retailing; Spencer King, Duplin, retailing; Joseph Ross, Robeson, retailing; J. Luther Smith, Robeson, retailing; Chas. Oxendine, Robeson, retailing; Robert Parks, Robeson, retailing.

Not a true bill—Alex McMillan, Robeson; breaking into postoffice; W. R. McNeill, Robeson; violation of postal laws; J. Luther Smith, Robeson, intimidating witnesses.

Judge Purnell heard at 5 o'clock the case of L. F. Swain vs. U. R. Johnson, et al., a land and lumber suit from Kinston, on the Circuit Court docket. The case was argued by Iredell Meares, Esq., for plaintiff, and ex-Judge James E. Shepherd and Wooten & Wooten for the defendants. Judge Purnell will sign a decree in the case to-day.

There will be two basket ball matches at the Boys' Brigade armory to-morrow night at 7:45 o'clock. The Juniors will play the Y. M. C. A SWEEPING ORDER

AN ACT OF INSUBORDINATION

Resolutions Recently Passed Protesting Against Increase of Rates So Construed—Half Million Insurance is Vitiated.

A furore among the Royal Arcanumites of Wilmington, second only to that when the rates were recently increased to the point that it practically excluded from the ranks of the order every member past the meridian of life and vitiated insurance policies which they had been carrying for years, was caused yesterday by the receipt in their mails of an official order from the Supreme Regent in Rome, N. Y., summarily suspending Cornelius Harnett Council No. 231, Royal Arcanum, for what is designated "an act of wilful insubordination and contempt of superior authority."

The Council has something over 150 members, among the best people of the city, and they have in force something like $500,000 insurance in the order, many of them having paid premiums on their policies for 25 years or more. By the order of suspension, this insurance is rendered null and void and naturally there was great indignation, not unmixed with surprise, upon the receipt of the order of suspension, which is declared in effect since October 27th. The communication is from Supreme Secretary W. O. Robson, of Boston, and he encloses a certified copy of the order of suspension by the Supreme Regent, dated at his office in Rome, N. Y., Oct. 27th.

The "act of wilful insubordination" is defined as "in that it published, issued and circulated a document and resolutions, relating to the laws of the order, without the necessary approval thereof, as provided by Section 612." The order then goes on to recite that in September a committee appointed from Cornelius Harnett Council to consider the condition of the order on account of the change of the rates of assessment, made a report to the council and recommended the adoption of resolutions, providing among other things that the laws adopted at the Atlantic City convention of the Supreme Council were unjust, inequitable, illegal and subversive of the basic principles of the Royal Arcanum, and recommending the continued agitation of the question of rates and advising that members pay their assessments under protest. The report is declared to be calculated to create and continue discontent, unrest and dissatisfaction upon the part of the membership generally; that the resolutions declared that no stone should be left unturned to "wipe out the Royal Arcanum's record of injustice in this particular, and vindicate to the world the principles of the order now in eclipse through a piece of injustice by the Supreme Council."

The circular was printed, it is stated, and circulated after members of the Council had been advised of the approval necessary to its promulgation. Thereupon application was made to the State Regent, asking for his approval to publish and circulate the resolutions. The approval was denied though the State Regent had been defiantly notified in the application that, "Confidentially, permit me to tell you that the circular will be issued anyway," which it was. The Supreme Regent, to whom the State Regent referred the circular, also notified Cornelius Harnett Council of his disapproval.

The order of suspension goes on to say that the Council in flagrant and deliberate violation of the laws of the order, issued the circular and sent a large number of them under seal to various subordinate councils and grand jurisdictions. From a large number of members and from several jurisdictions, it is stated, protests have been received by the Supreme Regent against the action of Cornelius Harnett Council. The circular and resolutions are declared by the Supreme Regent "contumacious and defiant violations of law," which cannot be overlooked or ignored.

Immediately upon receipt of the communication, Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., Regent of the local council; Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, Mr. B. J. Jacobs, Mr. C. M. Whitlock and other leading members of the order took counsel of Mr. Marsden Bellamy, of Bellamy & Bellamy, a member of the order and at first it seemed that the matter would be taken immediately into the courts upon application to Federal Judge Purnell, for a restraining order, but that was finally abandoned as inexpedient, expensive and tedious, and an effort will first be made to induce the Supreme Regent to withdraw the order of suspension. To the end that some plan may be devised for the good of all concerned, a meeting of the council is officially called for to-night, at which, some action will be taken. Mr. Bellamy, the counsel, has been a member of the order for many years, will be present and make an address.

Many of the members have paid premiums for 27 years and are now past the age in which they can get insurance in other forms. That they should be summarily cut off is very hard upon them, and it is expected that a conservative course will be pursued.

Carolina Council, Royal Arcanum, also of this city, is not affected by the order of suspension.

MRS. LOUISE P. MUNSON.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday Morning—Funeral To-Day.

Many friends in this city and elsewhere throughout the State will hear with profound sorrow of the death of Mrs. Louise P. Munson, widow of the late Horace H. Munson, which occurred rather suddenly at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the family residence, No. 319 Walnut street. Mrs. Munson had been in poor health some time but rather late Tuesday night she was apparently as well as usual and exchanged pleasantries with members of the household before retiring. About the hour named, however, members of the family were summoned by her, and before a physician could arrive she had passed into the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Munson was in the 68th year of her age and was held in the highest esteem by all who enjoyed her friendship and acquaintance. She was a daughter of the late Capt. John Banks, of Fayetteville, and is survived by three sons, Messrs. H. P. and E. H. Munson, of this city, and Mr. John B. Munson, of New York; one daughter, Miss Kate C. Munson, and two brothers, Mr. Chas. Banks, of Georgia, and Mr. W. W. Banks, of this city.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., assisted by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D. The remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

CASE OF HENRY PIGFORD.

Henry Pigford, the half-insane colored man who so violently assaulted Constable Savage when the officer went to arrest him Tuesday morning, was arraigned before Justice Bornemann for trial yesterday. Pigford talked at random and defied the justice to do his worst. It was plainly evident that the old negro's reason was gone and that his dementia has taken a vicious turn. He was charged with an assault and battery in the original case brought by the colored woman and with an assault and battery with a deadly weapon upon and resisting Constable Savage. In each of the two last named indictments, Pigford was bound to Superior Court and in default of $100 bond went to jail while judgment was suspended in the case for simple assault.

Justice Bornemann says he has no desire to punish a crazy man and that if the county authorities will take charge of the old man, he will give way.

—The regular monthly business meeting of the North Carolina Sorosis will be held at the club rooms, in the Odd Fellows' building, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Thursday Morning, Nov. 2.

THE LABOR AND SETTLERS QUESTION.

That is a commendable movement which former Congressman John G. Shaw has originated at Fayetteville in the organization of a Scotch Immigration Society. The purpose of the Society is "to induce Scotch immigrants to come to the Cape Fear section," and one of the plans to secure Scotch settlers is "to send an agent direct to Scotland and lay before the people there the advantages of this section of the United States."

The reason that Cumberland county is reaching out after the Scotch is that Cumberland county and the tier of neighboring counties were settled by the Scotch and that they have proven themselves to be the salt of the earth. The honest, sturdy, industrious Scotch have made splendid county builders and The Star shares the desire of its Cumberland friends to get more of the same kind. The Scotch are all right wherever they are and we hope Mr. Shaw will induce thousands of them to come to North Carolina.

Mr. Shaw believes that sufficient Scotch immigrants can be induced to locate in the Cape Fear section to not only furnish the required labor in the fields and industries but also to become purchasers of lands, home-builders and good citizens. He urges that "owing to the demoralized and unreliable condition and scarcity of labor at this itme," the whole public will be interested in this movement. By all means let us get the Scotch.

The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, the ablest of the trade journals of the South, has been for some time collecting expressions from the Southern papers as to the demand for labor in the South and the supply. They show that the demand is increasing steadily in volume and variety and that the supply is not keeping up with it. In a recent number, for instance, the reports showed marked need in Norfolk, Va., for labor in the building trade; in North Carolina for the lumber mills; in Charleston, S. C., for the oyster canneries; in Alabama for the foundry and steel industries; in Louisiana for the sugar plantations; in Mississippi for the cotton plantations, agricultural, manufacturing, and domestic service.

The suggestions as to supply are various. In Louisiana Italians are being imported in considerable numbers; in Mississippi there is a notable beginning of Japanese immigration; in North Carolina and in South Carolina men are being brought from New York, but they are foreigners.

The editor of the New York Times, knowing something of the South's aversion to some classes of foreign immigration, says this in commenting upon what the Manufacturers' Record has been saying about the immigration question:

"Foreign immigration, direct or indirect, is quite generally favored—much more so than would have been possible even ten years ago. One paper—The Carolina Tar Heel—advocates a strict enforcement of the vagrant law on one hand and the formation of negro labor unions on the other. It is confident that the result of this combination of forces would be a sufficient supply of reasonably good labor. Doubtless it would tend that way, but the chances are that the colored men of the South will not be driven to do all the work they can except by the competition of labor brought in from elsewhere."

KEEP YOUR MONEY AT HOME.

The Charlotte Observer briefly but pointedly remarks:

"Why should all our money for protection against death and fire go away from home? If insurance companies are organized in North Carolina and the men behind them are such sort that people, looking at their names, know that they assume no obligations which they cannot make good—in other words that the cash is behind every policy they guarantee, then why not give the business to the safe home folks instead of to strangers whose guarantees may be all right but are no better than those of the neighbors? It is the opprobrium of the South that it has always sent its money away to buy things which it would as well and much better buy at home."

It did not require much space for the Observer to say the above but it is a nugget of truth and wisdom. It is a solid shot and hits the bullseye. It certainly ought to have the desired effect.

Keep your money at home North Carolinians, keep your money in North Carolina. If you think of sending any circulating medium out of North Carolina to circulate somewhere else and build up some other State, take a second thought about how you can keep your money in North Carolina. It will serve your purposes just as well and will help to build up some North Carolina enterprise, some valuable institution or some business of importanee to the community and State.

Within ten years we hope to see enough insurance companies organized in North Carolina to stop at least three-fourths of the money drain that flows steadily out of the State. The opportunity is ripe for organizing home companies. The chanees for getting business were never so propitious, and we hope the monied men of North Carolina will not let pass such a favorable time for showing their enterprise and making a good investment. The field is ripe for the harvest.

BLESSINGS OF DEMOCRACY.

The Raleigh News and Observer of Wednesday says Dr. B. F. Dixon, Auditor of the State, who has just returned from a visit to various points and who lately has been all over the State, says this:

"The State of North Carolina is more prosperous than any other American State, and its people are more thoroughly contented and happy than any other people. Our people believe in God and the angels and are going to continue to vote the Democratic ticket."

To those Republicans who are hankering for a change in North Carolina we might as well whisper: "Let well enough alone."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—We believe that there is a "light in the window" for every distressed human soul. Brush away the tears and look for it.—Raleigh Post.

—Secretary Wilson is learning that, regardless of government reports, the cotton speculator can quote census figures to his purpose.—Washington Post.

—Savannah couldn't get the President in person, but she can receive wireless messages from him, which is more than a lot of her sister cities that did get him can do.—Savannah News.

—It was once the habit of the farmers to spend the summer trying to kill grass. Many of them now think it is better to let it grow, and then spend the winter collecting money for hay.—Raleigh Post.

—Wireless messages from the President on board the West Virginia, while that ship was off the Georgia coast were recorded by a field instrument at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, with which army officers were experimenting. There is apparently no way of stopping these mysterious waves when once set in motion, and secrecy is not now one of the wireless virtures.—Charlotte Observer.

—It is now said that Mr. Roosevelt is impressed with the idea of sending Southern men to consulates in the Far East, as promoters of the cotton trade. He could swap off a good many of the present foreign agents for Southern men to the advantage of the commerce of the country. A batch of Southerners, selected for their knowledge of cotton and cotton goods could work wonders for our trade in the Orient. Naturally, Southern men should fill these posts. We hope the President will carry out the idea, not so much for the sake of giving Southern men government jobs as for the practical work they will do in building up the foreign trade in cotton goods.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Did the minister die resigned?" "Not him. He died, but blamed if we could get him to resign."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Dolly has offered to sing at Ethel's muscale." "I thought she hated Ethel?" "Well, that proves it, doesn't it?"—Judge.

—"How old is that Miss Vernon—16 or 60?" "Why, man, you've met her a dozen times!" "Yes, but she always had her automobile outfit on!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—The Count—"My dear sir, your daughter has a frightful temper. I can't put up with it." His American Father-in-Law—"Your'e right. If I hear any more complaints, I'll disinherit her."—Life.

—"Are you going to betray the people after they put you into office?" "My dear sir," answered Senator Sorghum, "you misapprehend. The people did not put me into office. And shall I go back on the men who did?"—Washington Star.

—Mrs. Rice—"I know you wouldn't like Miss Worriley. She is very depressing. One of the kind, you know, that is always borrowing trouble." Mrs. Bruce—"Oh, then, I'd be sure to like her. I've loads of trouble to lend."—Brooklyn Life.

—Weary Business Man (hanging to strap)—"Why in creation don't you run more cars." Street Car President—"My dear sir, it would pain me exceedingly to deprive a courteous gentleman like yourself of the privilege of fiving up a seat to a lady."—New York Weekly.

—Young Enthusiastic Artist (recently)—"I presume, Miss Fitzdook, you paint? Miss Fitzdook (indignantly, misapplying his remark)—"Sir, you intend to insult—" Young Artist (very much embarrassed)—"Oh, 'pon my word, Miss Fitzdook, don't think for a moment that I alluded to the paint on your face."—Tit Bits.

—"How," asked the first political pirate, "will we be able to get aboard the ship of state? The reform element has gained control of the party." "Wait," said the wise old henchman, "until the next convention. Then we'll slip a little plank into the platform that'll carry us through." "Ah!" commented the other pirate, "sort of a political gang-plank, eh?"—Judge.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 1.—With the exception of a little irregularity during the early session the cotton market ruled generally firm and in the late trading was quite active. The close showed a net gain of 20 to 24 points with sales estimated at 500.000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance 8 to 10 points in response to higher cables, big spot sales in the English market and a bullish interpretation placed on a crop condition report by a local authority, and an estimate of the crop of Texas and territories by a southwestern authority. On the bulge there was considerable realizing and the market worked off 3 or 4 points from the best but later rallied again and after a comparatively quiet and narrow middle session turned very strong during the afternoon on Southern bull support and local covering, with final prices within a point or two of the best of the session or around 10.79 for January. The weather according to the early map was generally clear but temperatures were low and the forecast called for frost tonight in Arkansas. Private cables from Liverpool reported a big trade demand in that market in explanation of the advance in futures, and spot sales were reported of 14,000 bales. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-16c. higher.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today were 53,768 bales against 39,373 last week and 63,599 last year. For the week estimated 510,000 bales against 293,921 last week and 440,929 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 6,171 bales, against 15,688 last year and at Houston 28,436 bales against 49,691 last year.

WORDS OF GRATEFUL HEART

North Carolinian Says Half Has Not Been Told in Singing Praises of Keeley—It Cured His Drink Disease.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

It is with peculiar pride that I am now looking over some of your literature and thinking of the time I was at your Institute; and I just feel like saying that the half has never been told in singing the praises that your Institute so much deserves. It has been four years since I took the treatment, and I have not tasted a drop of whiskey or anything of the kind, and would not for the world; in fact, I don't want it, and if I had the time I would like to come and stay at your institute for thirty days now, and rest and enjoy myself with you all again. I want to say to you that I never will forget your kindness to me when I was there. Col. Osborn, the physician and the attendants—you all—certainly did treat me very nicely, and then, when I think of the condition I was in when I went to the Institute, and the condition I am in now, it makes me feel like praising God that he ever put it in the power and hearts of men to establish such an Institute, where poor, fallen men might go and restore themselves to their families, their country, and their friends. I just feel like saying that none know the awful condition of men who have contracted the disease of drink, but those who have tried it, and I would to God that I could advise and influence every man who has this awful habit or disease to go to the Keeley Institute and be cured. He certainly will not regret the time, and so far as the money is concerned he will make that back so soon that he will not miss it. I have been and expect to try to influence all my friends that are thus afflicted to take your treatment and be cured. I just feel like it has been, to sum it up in a nut shell, all and all to me.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history.. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurange on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build up our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

OSBORNE SPURS UP JEROME.

District Attorney Declares He Will Prosecute Insurance Swindlers.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York. Oct. 31.—Further promises to prosecute persons shown to be guilty of crime by the revelations in life insurance affairs now being made by the New York Legislative Investigating Committee, were made to-day by District Attorney William T. Jerome. The promises were made in reply to the construction which his rival for office, James W. Osborne, put upon Mr. Jerome's recent statement that if re-elected he would employ Charles E. Hughes, now counsel for the investigating committee to conduct the prosecution of insurance offenders. Mr. Osborne asked Mr. Jerome if he wanted to use Mr. Hughes in order to shirk the conduct of these prosecutions nimself. Mr. Jerome said in reply to-day:

"I have felt all along in regard to these insurance matters that crime had been committed, and that the persons guilty of these crimes, must be prosecuted, and it is my intention, as I have said on several occasions, to prosecute to the bitter end every person connected with these insurance matters against whom it is possible to obtain evidence showing the commission of a criminal offense."

Man's Unreasonableness.

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female troubles. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy druggist, price 50c. **

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; 25 cents. **

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. **

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; 25 cents. **

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Governor Glenn was in Beaufort yesterday and spoke at the laying of the corner-stone of a new public school edifice. While away he will also inspect the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

—Raleigh Post, Nov. 1st: The corporation commission, having received complaints that the Atlantic & Yadkin Railway, from Sanford to Mt. Airy, 130 miles, is in bad condition, leaves tomorrow to inspect it. The road is owned and operated by the Southern Railway.

—Joe Hines, who lives near La Grange, N. C., was removed to the Goldsboro Sanitarium Tuesday morning for treatment. Hines shot himself in the head a few days ago, either accidentally or premeditatedly, he being under the influence of liquor at the time. The ball has not been removed, but the case is considered hopeful.

—At Greensboro on Tuesday Mayor Murphy fined S. N. Cone, a cotton broker, $20 and costs for cursing and abusing Editor R. W. Haywood, of the Morning Telegram, in the lobby of Hotel Guilford Monday night on account of the publication of an article in The Telegram some time ago concerning a raid made by the police, who charged Mr. Cone and three others with gambling.

—Raleigh Post, Nov. 1st: Governor Glenn has received a check from the governor of South Carolina for $435.62, in payment of the costs in the case of State vs. Fisher and O'Day, the safe crackers, who were arrested in Wadesboro, for burglary, and who afterwards were sent to South Carolina to stand trial on another charge. This amount represented the cost to which the officers in North Carolina were put to capture and care for the men pending the granting of the requisition from the governor of South Carolina.

—Willie, the little 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Smith, of Goldsboro, who was so badly burned on Sunday morning while Mrs. Smith was attending to her household duties, is some better. Her other little son, Louis, who rushed to his brother's assistance upon hearing his cries, and who was burned very badly about the hands and arms in trying to extinguish the flames is also getting along very well. He is a little hero. Despite the terrible suffering he underwent, he never stopped fighting the fire until the last spark was out, thus saving his brother's life.

—A Newbern dispatch on Tuesday says: Johnnie Croker, the 17-year old son of Mr. John Croker of this city, who while at his work at Blades Mill yesterday was accosted by a negro and was struck on the right side of his head with a monkey wrench, is lying in a very critical condition. Drs. J. F. Rhem and R. S. Primrose performed an operation this afternoon, removing a large piece of bone from the brain, also a heavy clot of blood. The young man is still unconscious and at times the bran oozes from the injured parts. Dr. J. F. Rhem says hope for the young man's recovery is frail. Death may occur at any moment from hemorrhage. The would-be negro murderer is still at large.

—At Raleigh on Tuesday, charters were issued for a number of new corporations in various parts of the State, as follows: Union Point Lumber Company, New Bern; capital $40,000, by J. A. Meadows and others. Merchants' and Farmers' Bank, Cleveland, Rowan county; capital $5,000, by W. F. Edwards and others. Cleveland Iron Works, Shelby; capital $15,000, by T. H. Abernathy and others. People's Bank and Trust Company, Salisbury; capital $100,000 authorized and $50,000 subscribed by R. E. White, N. B. McCanless and others. The Southern Investment Company of Washington, N. C.; capital $50,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by B. L. Susman and others.

—An Asheville dispatch on Tuesday says: Summons in the $20,000 damage suit that Hon. H. S. Anderson of Henderson county has instituted against Collector Harkins, Republican State Chairman Rollins, Marshal Millikan and District Attorney Holton, were sent to Sheriff Reed from the Henderson county authorities Saturday and have been served on Mr. Rollins and Mr. Harkins. The announcement that the "poutical" suit had been instituted has created varied and sundry comment in political and semi-political circles in this city. Some ridicule the efforts of Mr. Anderson, while other, principally those numbered among the "outs," smile and declare that while they have little idea that Mr. Anderson will ever recover a red penny, he will succeed in giving the Republican officeholders and organization no little embarrassment.

—The colored State fair opened at Raleigh on Tuesday, and among other things of it, the News and Observer says: The best thing, however, is the agricultural and trucking display, and of this the two best exhibits are those of S. M. R. Slade, of Shotwell, twelve miles from Raleigh, who owns the Green Hill Farm, and of Fletcher Lockhart, who lives three and one-half miles of Raleigh. Both of these show cotton on the stalk and in the bales, corn, peppers, cabbage, turnips, oats, wheat, meal, flour, canned fruit, peanuts, pumpkins, Irish and sweet potatoes, all in great variety. Lockhart has a farm of 120 acres and is fifty-one years old, and besides his truck he makes 15 to 20 bales of cotton, 25 to 30 barrels of corn. Slade has twenty acres of his seventy-four in cultivation and besides his varied truck makes two bales of cotton, 35 to 400 barrels of corn and has four and one-half acres in tobacco. Each is a thrifty colored farmer and each has money in the bank. There is a lesson in the success of these two colored men, both making and saving money, both respected, and both attending to their own business on the farm.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., to Sol. Sternberger, for $100 and other considerations, property at northwest corner of Gwyn and Anderson streets, 66x165, feet in size.

Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., and wife to Thomas W. Davis, for $10 and other considerations, quit-claim to same property described above.

Walker Taylor and wife to Daniel Odum and wife, for $75, property on north side of Wooster, 132 feet west of Fifth street, 33x132 feet in size.

Richard Hannibal, a negro died at Roosevelt Hospital, New York, yesterday, and according to the police, circumstantial evidence connects him with the murder of Jacob H. Thompson, an editor on the New York Times, who was killed in his room in the St. James hotel several weeks ago. Hannibal was a bell boy at the St. James. On October 25th, his throat was cut in a quarrel with a negro woman, and he was removed to the hospital. He made no confession, however.

H. W. Bragg, merchant and furniture manufacturer, of Second and Market streets, residing at 114 North Sixth street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved to be a grand medicine, and I can also say that I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up as straight as ever and the kidney secretions have an cleared up. You may use my name as an endorser of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and also Doan's Ointment which I used with good results."

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

NEW YORK ELECTION A WARM NUMBER

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 1.—A crowd numbering a thousand or more persons attacked and tore down an anti-Hearst banner in Union Square today.

The banner was similar to one put up in Park Row yesterday and which was taken down last night by order of Mayor McClellan, after a demonstration had been made by a large crowd at the city hall. Today's crowd gathered shortly after 12 o'clock and soon tore down a red flag supported by a hand labeled "Hearst."

Along with the red flag the crowd pulled down another flag, the stars and stripes supported by a hand mark ed "McClellan." The red flag was cut to pieces with a pair of tailor's shears and the remnants ground into the pavement. The American flag was carefully preserved and guarded until the police arrived and took possession of it. The police made no arrests.

There was another and more exciting scene at Fourth street and Broadway where a similar banner had been placed. One young man who declared that he was not a Hearst sympathizer, made a speech expressing indignation that the American flag had been placed on a level with the flag of anarchy. The young man denounced Tammany Hall for perpetrating such an outrage, as he called it. McClellan's name and Tammany Hall were hissed while cheers were given for Hearst. Another young man pushed his way through the crowd toward the poles supporting the banner shouting "I'll do it. I'll cut it down. We will get rid of that flag of anarchy."

There was a cheer from the crowd which was heard for blocks and a lane was made for the young man who made his way to one of the poles and climbed it.

He cut the cord that held the flag and both fell to the street. On the side of the street on which the American flag fell many of the crowd uncovered and the national emblem was picked up and carefully folded. The red flag, however, was trampled in the mud and finally was torn to pieces. The young man who had cut down the flags was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct. Subsequently in police court he was reprimanded and released.

A third red flag on a Tammany banner was attacked by a crowd at Broadway and Park Place today but the police arrived in time to stop a man whom the crowd was boosting up a pole to cut down the banner. One arrest was made. This red flag which was near the postoffice was the object of many complaints made to Postmaster Willcox. He replied that as the banner did not touch the government property it was out of his jurisdiction.

Police Commissioner McAdoo said that he intended to communicate today with the persons responsible for hanging the red flags and that he would take measures to prevent further disturbances over them.

Mayor McClellan today expressed disapproval of the use of the red flag on some of the Tammany banners and also directed that the speakers supporting him must not be guilty of personal abuse of any of the opposing candidates.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, said that Tammany had nothing to do with the erection of political displays on which the American flags and the red flag were placed side by side. "We have nothing to do with them," said Mr. Murphy. "These flags were put up by business men."

The appeal of the Republican County Committee against the decision of Justice Stover of the Supreme Court against the placing of the name of William Travers Jerome on the Republican ballot, was heard today before five justices of the appellate division. This evening it was announced that no decision would be rendered before tomorrow.

EDITOR THAMPSON'S MURDERER.

Further Evidence That Negro Bell Boy Killed Him.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 1.—Further light on the recent mysterious murder of Jacob H. Thompson, exchange editor of the New York Times, was obtained by the police to-day. When Mamie Gibson, the negress, who knew the colored bell boy, Richard Hannibal, who died last night while under suspicion of committing the murder, was arraigned in court to-day, she said that Hannibal told her that if she was ever questioned about the murder, she must say that Hannibal spent the night of Tompson's death at her house. He was not there that night, the girl testified. She said that the bell boy told her that he did not murder Thompson, but that he ought to have been murdered because of the small tips he gave. The colored girl was arraigned in connection with Hannibal's death, as the bell boy was found with his throat cut after he had quarreled with her and wounded her recently.

NEGRO COMMITTED MURDERS.

Under Sentence for Killing Man, Confesses to Murder of Woman.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 1.—Isham Edwards, who will be hanged Friday for the murder last September of N. W. Eppes, superintendent of public instruction for Leon county, confessed to-day to a representative of the Times-Union to another murder perpetrated about three months earlier. The victim was a negro woman. Edwards said he went to the woman's home the day after the murder and acted as one of the pall-bearers, and took part in singing and praying at the funeral.

AWFUL CARNAGE THROUGH RUSSIA

Collisions Between Rioters and and Troops Result in Frightful Loss of Life

HUNDREDS SLAIN IN ODESSA

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Meanwhile the socialists and revolutionaries who believe they have the government stampeded are bending every effort to keep the movement going and to precipitate a catastrophe from which they hope a socialistic republic will emerge. This is a consumation as to be desired by the majority of liberals, especially the zemstvoists, as by the government itself, and therein lies the chief hope that the force gathering under the banner of Count Witte is sufficiently strong to make head against the revolution movement and the spirit of unrest throughout the country.

Count Witte is doing his utmost to meet the chief objections against the new regime. In addition to the promised annesty for political prisoners, liberty of the press, has been granted, Count Witte offering to the deputations of editors which called on him to demand the abolition of the censorship regulation, the amusing explanation that in the hurry of writing the manifesto the words "liberty of the press." were inadvertently omitted and that the omission had not been noticed until the complaint was made. The Official Gazette formally announced that the term "liberty of speech" is to be interpreted as including the press.

Against the demand for the removal of General Trepoff, Count Witte, however, is inflexible. He informed a delegation from the strike committee, which called on him to-day to demand their release of the imprisoned comrades and the removal of General Trepoff, that it would be madness for him to dismiss the only man capable of maintaining order in the city at the present juncture.

Nominally for the purpose of perfecting their organization and gathering funds, the strike committee tonight decided to call off the St. Petersburg industrial strike at noon Friday next, but to resume at an opportune moment.

The St. Petersburg railroad men having resolved to continue their strike, declared they have assurances that the soldiers of the railroad battalion will desert if a little pursuasion in the shape of train wrecking is employed.

No newspaper will be issued tomorrow and probably not until Friday at noon. The printers have determined to work only for the journals, which refused to submit themselves to the censorship regulations. The publishers association have met this determination by resolving to disregard hereafter all circulars issued by the censor and to print what they please. The only papers now appearing are the official publications and the Workmen's Gazette, which to-morrow will contain an article attacking Count Witte and General Trepoff, calling the former by the name of "Sly Fox" and the latter by the designation of the "Ravenous Wolf."

Though to-day passed in comparative quietness in St. Petersburg and Moscow a flood of despatches from all parts of the Empire report disorders in many cities with a heavy total of dead and wounded. The people while celebrating their new freedom were in many instances set upon by cossacks and police while sometimes the spirit of the mob violence broke forth and the lower elements of the population gave themselves up to pillage and destruction.

The most serious disorders apparently occurred at Odessa where hundreds of persons are reported to have been killed or wounded and where the rioting is momentarily expected to flare out into a repetition of the slaughter of last July, and at Kasewan where a three days reign of terror was ended only by the retirement of all Cossacks to their barracks.

A deplorable feature or the news from the interior is that anti-Jewish uprisings have occurred in many places, especially in South Russia where the populace vented its hatred of the Jews by sacking their stores and clubbing the members of the race and in some cases resorting to the torch. The attacks on the crowds are reported to be in most cases the work of Cossacks who many times were apparently let loose upon the people without direction or authority.

In St. Petersburg today General Trepoff in accordance with his announcement of last night prevented the resumption of revolutionary demonstrations by having the crowds dispersed whenever and wherever they gathered. Kazan place and the Novsky Prospect were several times cleared by the Cossacks and police and the crowds were driven from the vicinity of the university with whips and the flats of sabres. General Trepoff was aided by the weather which was cold and rainy, and which kept many persons off the streets.

Count Witte's task in securing a fair trial for the new experiments in constitutionalism is a most difficult one. He is disappointed at not securing the support of the Liberals on whose co-operation he counted. Many of these are holding aloof and seem rather to enjoy the predicament in which the new premier finds himself

Wanton Conduct of the Troops.

Kazan, Russia, October 30.—(Delayed in transmission.) Terrible deeds of plunder and violence on the part of police and troops commenced here October 28. Tney were begun late at night when there were hardly any persons on the streets except the police and Cossacks and continued throughout the whole of the next day and night. It seemed as if the police and Cossacks were let loose on the main streets without plan, object or command. Shops were pillaged, but appeals to the authorities by the proprietors of these were unanswered. A private residence and the district court were fired upon and the troops even shot at windows that were lighted up. The slightest pretext, such as the lighting of a match, was insufficient to cause firing while peaceable persons who were promenading the streets were fired upon and many of them killed or wounded.

Further details of yesterday's massacre increase the feeling of horror which it has aroused here. Many school children were among the wounded. During the night, after the people became panic stricken and sought refuge in their homes, Cossacks and police broke into and gutted a number of stores. The fatalities were larger than at first reported. There were pools of blood in the street.

Hundreds Killed at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—Conflicts between Cossacks and students continue. During the fighting between roughs and Jews in Dalnitskaya street last night thirty-seven persons were killed and eighty-one seriously wounded who were taken to the hospital.

London, November 1.—A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Odessa attributes today's outbreaks there of the rowdy elements to the instigation of the disarmed and disbanded police. The correspondent estimates the number of persons killed at over a hundred. He says that if the city is not quickly occupied by the troops who have again been called out "there will be wholesale anarchy and not improbably a massacre of Jews." Private dispatches received in London today depict the situation at Odessa as being worse than before the imperial manifesto was issued.

Twenty Killed at Warsaw.

Warsaw, Nov. 1.—Twenty persons were killed and upwards of a hundred wounded in encounters tonight between the mobs and the troops. At 10 o'clock a crowd gathered before the town hall and demanded the release of political prisoners. The chief of police liberated three hundred who had been arrested during the last few days but refused to release twelve who were arrested by order of the central government. The crowd then commenced to smash the doors and windows of the town hall, whereupon the chief of police telephoned the barracks for assistance and a force of Hussars and Cossacks with a battery of artillery galloped to the scene. The Hussars charged the mobs, killing sixteen persons and wounding seventy-three. Later there was an encounter between infantry and a mob in the Bank Square, when the troops fired into the crowd, killing four and wounding thirty.

DRESS SUIT MURDER MYSTERY.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 1.—Morris Nathan arrested at Pittsburg in connection with the death of Susanna Geary, arrived here this afternoon in charge of officers. He was accompanied by his counsel and Martin Nathan, his brother, who had boarded the train at the Back Bay station in this city.

A crowd blocked the platform at the South Union station, awaiting the arrival of the train. Nathan, pale and weak and apparently quite ill, came down the car steps following Chief Inspector Watts. Nathan's eye swept over the assembly and he caught sight of a camera. He quickly pulled off his derby hat and held it over his face just as a flash light was set off. Between Chief Watts and Superintendent Pierce, still concealing his face, with his hat he passed through the throng. At the gate Captain Dugan of the local police, was waiting and he escorted the party to a waiting carriage. The trip to police headquarters was made with the horses driven at a gallop and Nathan was taken at once into the private office of Superintendent Pierce. There Nathan collapsed.

Dr. Dunn, the police physician, who was summoned to attend Nathan, informed the police officials that it would be imprudent to question the prisoner tonight, and acting upon this advice the examination of Nathan was postponed until tomorrow. Nathan has been charged with abortion and it is on this charge that he will be brought into court tomorrow.

GEORGIA MURDERER CONFESSES

By Wire to The Morning Star

Vladosta, Ga., Nov. 1.—J. G. Rawlings, under sentence of death for the killing of the two children of W. L. Carter, has made a confession that he hired Alf Moore to kill Carter, but says that the killing of the children was not in the "trade." He says that he particularly cautioned the negro not to harm the children. Rawlings, Joe Bently and Milch Johnson, according to the confession, made a deal with Alf Moore to do the bloody work. Joe Bentley and Alf Moore wanted to kill Carter on the Sunday night before, but they could not get a buggy at Hahira to go to Carter's house. He says they tried to hire a buggy, but that the liveryman would not hire it to them unless they would tell him where they were going. Rawlings says that his confession was made without the knowledge of his lawyers, as he had reached the point where he could not keep quiet any longer. He says that he is thoroughly indifferent to the decision of the Supreme Court to which his case has been appealed so far as he is concerned, but he wants his sons saved

VENZUELA FACING WAR.

France's Patience Exhausted and Force May Be Used.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Washington, Nov. 1.—There is a growing feeling of irritation on the part of France towards Venezuela because of the pursuance by the Venezuelan foreign office of diplomatic methods peculiar to a few of the South American countries which the French regard as lacking in straight forwardness, as evasive and as purposely calculated to befog the real issue. Exchanges on this basis have strained the patience of the French government almost to the breaking point, and it will require a complete change of attitude on the part of Venezuela to prevent an open rupture between that country and France involving a display of force.

PRINCE LOUIS OF BATTENBURG

Majestic British Squadron Received at Annapolis By Admiral Evans

OUR WHITE SQUADRON THERE

Royal English Rear Admiral Cordially Welcomed—He Has Made Fine Impression—Formalities Were Extremely Democratic.

By wire to The Morning Star.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 1.—Greeted by the commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic fleet, the superintendent of the Naval Academy and the Governor of Maryland, Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, and the armored cruiser squadron under his command, on the day of their arrival in Chesapeake bay have been made to know and feel that they are heartily welcomed to American waters and American soil. Strictly according to regulations, as the several official welcomes have been, each has been characterized by a note of sincerity and hospitality that rang true and tonight Prince Louis and the officers and men of his squadron feel thoroughly at home.

Twenty-one guns from the Drake announced the approach up Chesapeake bay this morning, shortly after 9 o'clock, of Prince Louis' squadron. Contrary to the official weather report a balmier autumn day never dawned over Chesapeake bay than that which poured out its sunshine upon the leaden colored cruisers as they steamed in single column swiftly up the bay. Prince Louis stood on the bridge of his flagship at the front of the majestic column of cruisers and gazed on the scene with evident pleasure. Immediately ahead stretched out across the bay to welcome him was the strong arm of the American navy composed of the eight battleships of the first and second divisions of the North Atlantic fleet, anchored in single column, some two hundred yards apart, the Maine at the head of the column flying the pennant of Rear Admiral Evans, the commander-in-chief, and the Missouri, Kentucky, Kearsarge, Alabama, Illinois, Iowa and Massachusetts in the order named. Spotless white they lay there, their guns and brasses gleaming in the sunlight as the great white squadron rode gracefully at anchor.

Three miles further toward the shore five swarthy smaller craft could be discerned from the bridge of the Drake. They were the boats of the destroyer flotilla, the Hopkins, the McDonaugh, the Lawrence, The Worden, and the Stewart, which arrived over night and anchored well up in the harbor. The back ground of this great picture which appealed strongly to Prince Louis, was formed by the massive granite buildings of the Naval Academy, the dome of the chapel, still under construction, rising high along the stay line.

The Drake exchanged salutes with the American vessels, and then the round of official calls began. Prince Louis was received aboard the Maine by Admiral Evans who gave the British admiral a hearty handshake. Another interesting call was that upon Governor Warfield. The Prince was exceedingly felicitious in the cordial, democratic manner in which he greeted the governor and his staff and when the Governor remarked that he would be glad to present his little daughter, Emma, he was asked to bring her immediately. The Prince chatted with little Emma Warfield who is only six years old.

"I have a little boy just your age," said his highness.

"What's his name?" the Governor's daughter asked.

The Prince replied: "He has nine names, one of which is Louis, but we call him Dick."

The Prince's health was then drunk informally and he returned to the Drake where at half past 1 this afternoon he received the return call of Admiral Evans. This afternoon officers from the British and American squadrons and the midshipmen crowded the side lines and saw the Naval Academy eleven defeat an eleven from the battleship Missouri in a game of football by a score of 16 to 0.

The armored cruiser squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Brownson, anchored shortly after noon outside the column of battleships. Admiral Brownson and Prince Louis later exchanged visits.

The American cruisers offer an interesting contrast to the cruisers of Prince Louis' squadron. The American cruisers are more formidable but the British ships are built for greater speed.

WORRIED HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Charles J. Devlin, Who Failed for $5,000,000, Dead.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Charles J. Devlin, the widely known coal mine operator who recently underwent bankruptcy with liabilities of over $5,000,000, died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital last night as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He suffered a similar stroke last Summer.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 1.—Charles J. Devlin before his failure in July last was generally credited with being one of the wealthiest men in Kansas. He was at the head of 26 different companies, coal mining enterprises and mercantile establisments in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and other States. For many years he was one of the most active business men in the southwest. As the result of overwork Devlin collapsed last Summer and while papers were being drawn up at Kansas City to form a corporation intended to take over and maange his enterprises, the First National Bank of Topeka, of which he was the principal stockholder, failed. The bank was found to hold close to $1,000,000 of Devlin paper, and its failure caused runs on several Topeka banks and the failure of one of Kansas city banks that held his paper. Devlin then went into bankruptcy. The report of the Devlin receivers made on October 19 placed his liabilities at $5,631,000.

AMERICANS MURDERED IN LIENCHOW CHINA

Missionaries Attacked Last Saturday and Five Killed—Three Ladies, Girl and Man Victims.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Hong Kong, Nov. 1.—Five American missionaries have, it is believed, been murdered at Lienchow. Dr. Eleanor Chestnut, Mrs. C. E. Machle and child, and Mr. and Mrs. Pearle are the victims of the disturbance at the Lienchow mission. Lienchow is a town of 12,000 people, situated in the western portion of the province of Kwang Tung, at the head of the Gulf of Tong King, not far from the treaty port of Pakhoi.

New York, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Machle was the wife of Dr. Charles E. Machle of Ohio. She was Miss Ella M. Wood, of Philadelphia. They had a daughter, Elsie, 15 years old. Dr. and Mrs. Machle have been stationed at Lienchow since 1889. Dr. Eleanor Chestnut had no home in this country. She was appointed a missionary in 1893. John Rogers Pearle was a new missionary who sailed from this country last August. He was born at New Bloomfield, Pa., in 1879. He was educated at the LaFayette college, and the Princeton Theological Seminary. He married Miss Gillespie, of Port Deposit, Md., last Summer before going to China, in August. In addition to four church buildings, the Lienchow mission, which has 207 native Christians on its roll, has three Sunday schools and three establishments for secular education, one of which is a boarding school with pupils. It also supports a hospital and a dispensary.

OLD NICK WILLIAMS CASE.

Trial at Greensboro Will Be Long and Tedius One.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Greensboro, Nov. 1.—Witness after witness for the government was introduced in the trial of the case against the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company—N. Glenn Williams and D. E. Kennedy—for violation of the international revenue laws in the Federal Court to-day, but no evidence of a startling character was introduced. The case now promises to be a long tedious examination of reports of the Southern Railway Company, and statements made to the Asheville District Collector A. M. Chandler, a deputy in the office of Collector Harkins, who testified last week, was on the stand for sometime, and examined the reports of the defendants made to the office of the collector. These reports were filed and marked as exhibits, and will be introduced before the District Attorney rests the case for the prosecution. A number of witnesses testified to purchase of whiskey, the price paid and the amount bought. The price paid varied from 95 cents to $2.50 per gallon, and the proof of the whiskey was between 70 and 100 per cent.

BIG RAILROAD MAN TALKS

Hill, of Great Northern, Has Some Doubt About Future.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 1.—James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway Company, said today that there is no quarrel between himself and E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, that there is not likely to be any and there is no cause for any. On Mr. Harriman's recent return from Japan he said that an era of competitive railroad building was at hand. Mr. Hill said to-day:

"I am not going to say a word about what Mr. Harriman said. Mr. Harriman has his ideas of development. I have mine, but I want to repeat that this talk of rupture, whether it emanates from Wall street or elsewhere, is absolute rubbish. More than three-quarters of what has been printed about this competitive railroad building has absolutely no foundation."

"How do you regard the future of the country?"

"Well, I am not a prophet. The country is great. But we must remember that the United States has some questions before it which it will have to meet and settle before its prosperity as a commercial nation will be on a permanent basis. As far as our domestic affairs are concerned of course our natural resources are very great and of themselves maintain a high standard of prosperity. At the same time we must have customers to buy what we produce as other nations are combining in such a way as may in the future make trouble for us on that score."

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

Young People of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church Entertained.

The Young People's Society of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church gave a delightful Hallowe'en party Tuesday night from 8 to 11 o'clock in the parlors of the parsonage, which were beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. An interesting programme was given to the enjoyment of all. It included a vocal solo by Mrs. Kegley; piano solo by Miss Lena Kure; soprano solo by Miss Ethel Bowden; German song by Miss Emma Schutt; a song "Summer Vacation" by Mrs. W. W. Koch. The numbers were all delightfully rendered. The costumes, etc., were good and every feature of the exercises was heartily enjoyed.

The Permanent Encampment.

Raleigh Post: "Adjutant General T. R. Robertson of Charlotte, was here yesterday and had a conference with Governor R. B. Glenn relative to the selection of a place for the permanent encampment of the North Carolina national guard. It is understood that two places—Morehead City and Wrightsville—have made propositions to secure the encampment. It will, however be ten days or two weeks before any action is taken. Perhaps a delegation from these localities may come here about the middle of this month and have a conference with the Governor and others and explain their propositions. If Raleigh intends to make any effort to get the permanent encampment, now is the proper time to act.
